FUNDRAISING UPDATE THREE

I even tried motorcross... and didn't fall off!

September 2010

£8000!

is what you have helped me raise - a fantastic achievement! I want to thank everyone who sponsored me and all of you for your good wishes...

It's been hard work asking for sponsorship in these difficult times but people have been very generous - as a result, the donation part of my sponsorship now stands at £4520 which makes this challenge so much more worthwhile - that's £3000 more than the minimum £1500.

In particular, I want to thank IML Concerts and the people who gave up their time to help me run my Champagne raffles, my business friends (see below) and my family, who have listened to me bang on about Enduro Africa since I registered way back in November 2008.

It's going to be a hell of a ride and I'm under no illusions as to how challenging it will be - I'm excited and looking forward to it... there will be pictures... so watch this space...
